FRIGID BLAST SWEEPS ACROSS NORTHERN AREA

Most Severe Cold Wave
Of Season Moves Eastward Today

SNOW AND SLEET
ACCOMPANY WIND

Scheduled to Hit Atlantic Seaboard Tonight
Or Tomorrow

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The most severe cold wave of the season advanced across the northern half of the nation today.

Temperatures ranging to 10 below zero prevailed from the Pacific northwest to the Great Lakes region as the cold moved eastward.

Temperatures fell below freezing
over a wide expanse of the continent after a comparatively mild
Christmas holiday.

Weather observers predicted the full force of the cold wave would reach the Atlantic seaboard tonight or tomorrow and that the bitter weather would stay for several days.

Snow, Sleet Accompany Wind

Snow and sleet accompanied the Arctic winds into the midwest and northeast. The cold dipped into Oklahoma and forecasters said it would be felt as far south as Florida.

Sub-zero weather plagued the Dakotas, Minnesota, Montana and Wyoming, with lower temperatures in prospect. Snow, rain and stiff winds heralded the approach of the cold wave in the east.

Helena, Mont., shivered in 10 below zero weather, and the same temperature was forecast for the entire state of Nebraska. It was eight below at Devils Lake, N. D., and Yellowstone park, Wyo., four below in Moorhead, Minn., and Bismarck, N. D., and zero at Denver.

Storm warnings were displayed
a Lake Michigan and from Cape Battera to Eastport, Me., on the Atlantic coast.

Highways Clogged

Highways in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa were clogged with drifted snow. Several hundred motorists were stranded from three to four hours in western Pennsylvania last night by snow and sleet.
Ice highways and streets caused scores of automobile accidents in Michigan and Illinois.

A windstorm in western Pennsylvania and southwest Virginia
unroofed buildings, uprooted trees,
and disrupted power and communication lines. Part of a hospital roof at Latrobe, Pa., was torn away and 75 patients were left in darkness for more than a half an

School Board Opens Bids On Wednesday

Members of the board of education will meet Wednesday night to open bids and award the contract for the installation of stoker equipment for the new high school annex.

Favorable weather at the start of the construction greatly aided the progress of the building. The work is being done by the Atlas
Construction Co. of Youngstown.

Two Arrested in N. Georgetown Postal Holdup

CONFESSION IS MADE BY SALEM MEN

Alva Stoffer and Ernest DePalmo Quizzed By U. S. Official

An investigation by Salem state highway patrolmen, police and Postal Inspector J. Ivey Jr. of Akron led to the arrest yesterday of two men in connection with the robbery of a postal clerk at North Georgetown last Thursday.

Those held are Alva Orlin Stoffer, 19, of R. D. 5, Salem, and Ernest DePalmo, 20, of Malvern, who has been living recently with Stoffer.

Confess Holdup

Stoffer and DePalmo confessed
they held up Miss Geneva Whinnery, 19, clerk at the North Georgetown postoffice, as she was leaving the building for the day, and fled with a metal box containing undetermined loot.

The officers are still in doubt as to the exact amount taken, although the prisoners led them to Tolerton's farm on the Depot road
where they went after the holdup Friday and burned part of the contents of the box. The patrolmen recovered partially buried checks and postal money order blanks which they turned over to Inspector Ivey as evidence.

The pair was held in the city jail overnight and then taken to the patrol barracks this morning
where they were questioned at length. They were returned to the jail to await probable transfer to Akron Friday afternoon where they will be given a preliminary hearing before a U. S. commissioner there.

Get DePalmo First

The patrolmen first approached DePalmo, at the Stoffer home, and later picked up Stoffer in front of a pool room on South Broadway.
After Patrolmen James White and
D. H. Cole had arrested Stoffer,
Corp. W. E. Arey and Howard
Hessinger returned and placed De-Palmo under arrest.

DePalmo told the authorities
he had never been in trouble before. It was his car that was used in the robbery. Stoffer has been in court here before, on minor charges.
Chief Ralph Stoffer said.

Although the men denied other crimes, state patrolmen said they believed they could be linked with other robberies in the Salem vicinity, including chicken thefts. They were to be questioned further.

CONTRACT LET AT COLUMBIANA

East Palestine Firm Given Library Building Job

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 27.—The contract for the construction of the new Columbian Public library building, to be built as a PWA project, was tentatively awarded Saturday noon by the Columbiana Board of Education to J. G. Madden & Sons of East Palestine on their low bid of $12,808.

The final approval and award
must be made by PWA authorities at Columbus, and work is scheduled to start the first of the year.
There were two other bidders:
Isaiah Mowen, Columbiana, $13,128;
and M. L. Hans, Damascus, $15-57.67.

The contracts included
plumbing, heating and electrical work.

The building will be 30x48 feet, fireproof, of brick and concrete construction, one-story with basement, and will be located on the S.
Elm st. lot near the school building. The lot has been the property of the school district for several years. The contract calls for completion before July 1, 1939, and local labor is to be used wherever possible. The architect who drew up the plans and who will be in general charge of construction is Frank F. Smith, Youngstown.

Fire Extinguished At Manciola Home

Fire, starting in the furnace room, caused considerable damage to a first floor rear bedroom at the house of Samuel Manciola, 246 S.
Howard ave., Sunday morning.
Howard ave., called at 10:45, turned water onto the blaze. The fire damaged part of the basement, back wall of the room and floor.

The firemen carried out an unidentified man, a roomer at the house, who had collapsed in the bathroom after being awakened by the smell of smoke. The Man-ciola family was away at the time.
Chief Malloy said.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS WILL HOLD MEETING TONIGHT, DEC.
27 AT HALL RUSSELL FAWCETT, CHANCELLER COMMANDER.

Innocent Cause of Killing

Because their unemployed father, William Rousseau, too poor to buy a Christmas tree, tried to take one from a nursery at Grafton, O., belonging to William Case, Geraldine and Rose Rousseau spent a tragic Christmas.
Their father was shot and killed, their mother gravely wounded. Case, 84, was jailed.

NEXT CONGRESS TO COMPROMISE

Power of Conservatives
Augmented by November Elections

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The set-up of the new congress and its committees betokens a session filled with compromises.

At many turns toward expansion and bolstering of his program, President Roosevelt will run into a committee chairman or other influential senate or house Democrat
whose views do not exactly agree with his own.

The power of these men, in the opinion of many returning legislators, has been augmented by the November election returns. The reinforced strength of the Republicans has given a new talking point to Democratic conservatives.
Members say it tends to turn the mind of all Democrats, conservatives and liberals, more sharply toward compromise than toward intra-party fights.

Showdown Awaited

How soon a showdown will come searcely can be estimated, but it probably will occur before the session is very old. It might easily be over the promotion of Harry Hopkins to secretary of commerce,
or over relief policies.

Or the break might come on labor legislation, on the effort to broaden social security programs or on appropriations for numberless projects. When it does come, it appears certain to be a dispute over policy rather than over the question of whether it should be done at all.

Until such a dispute does come,
is fought out on the floor and the rolls are called, none will know to what extent the conservatives ad-

Father of Salem Physician Succumbs

Dr. P. W. Byers, 75, father of Dr.
Guy E. Byers, died early Sunday morning at his home at Arcanum, Darke county, where he had been a practicing physician for many years.

Dr. Byers and his family were in Arcanum today to attend the funeral service.

His father, who had visited in Salem on different occasions, had been ill since summer.

Surviving are his wife, Laura;
one daughter, Mrs. David Bottlebaugh of Springfield; his son, Dr.
Byers, and six grandchildren.

JOHN V. MORRIS STRUCK BY CAR, FATALLY HURT

Former Professional Magician Victim of Yule
Eve Accident

WALKS IN FRONT
OF AUTOMOBILE

Other Accidents, of Minor Nature, Reported
Over Holiday

John Vaughn Morris, about 80, retired professional magician who had entertained many groups in Salem and vicinity since making his home here during the past year, was killed in one of nine traffic accidents in Salem and on district highways over the holiday weekend.

Morris died in Salem City hospital at 2:45 a. m. Sunday of injuries received when he walked in front of an automobile in front of the public library at 6:15 p. m. Saturday. He suffered a fractured pelvis, broken left leg and shock.

Driver Exonerated

Coroner Arnold Devon ruled unavoidable accident and exonerated
the driver of the car, Jonas Coy of
R. D. 5, Salem.

Coy and his wife, Anna, were enroute east at the time of the accident. They told Patrolman Nerr Gaunt that when they got in front of the library, the machine seemed to "jump" as though it had struck something. They looked back and saw a man lying in the street, they said, stopped the car and went back. They immediately called an ambulance.

At the time of the mishap, Coy was reported traveling 20 miles an hour.

Born Jan. 6, 1859, in Washington county, Mr. Morris had been making his home with a cousin, Mrs.
Ernest Kelley, 846 E. State st., just across the street from the scene of the accident.

He had been in the entertainment
field as a magician for the last 50 years and his shows had taken him from coast to coast innumerable times. He once operated a wholesale flour and feed store at Hobart, Okla.

Besides Mrs. Kelley, he is survived by a brother, Ulysses Grant Morris of Youngstown; two nephews, Charles H. Morris of Salem, James V. Morris of Youngstown; a niece, Miss Florence Morris of Youngstown, and a cousin, Mrs.
Mae M. Burd of Salem.

Funeral Wednesday

The funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Arcane-Pearce funeral home in charge of Rev. Herbert J. Thompson, of Youngstown, former pastor of the First Methodist church.
Friends may call tonight at the funeral home.

Three persons were injured in a tree-car collision on Route 534,
a quarter of a mile north of Benton, at 9:20 p. m. Sunday.
The highway patrolmen reported.
The machines were operated by Clon Sindedecker, 24, of Newton
Hts., George Vrokonir, 46, of North Elton, and Roy Shade, 45, of Newton Falls.

Sindedecker suffered deep cuts about the face and neck, while the other motorists escaped unhurt.
Hls. Sindedecker, 24, and Robert Sindedecker, 5, who were riding in the first machine, were treated for bites and lacerations of the face and Poland, 33, of Washington.

Rival For Shirley Seen By Hollywood Star-Gazer

Tyrone Power Will Marry and Joan Crawford Will Fall In Love, Astrologist Predicts

(By Associated Press)
HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 27.—In 1939, if an astrologer's predictions are right, Tyrone Power will marry and Joan Crawford will fall in love.

A little girl named Patsy Lee Parson will rival Shirley Temple
with an appealing performance,
perhaps in "Gone with the Wind."

Robert Taylor will remain a bachelor.

Jeanette MacDonald will overcome an unfortunate planetary influence on her marriage to Gene Raymond.

Gracie Fields, knock-about English comedienne, will score a hit with the American public.

Difficult shoals loom up and must be avoided by the marital barks
of Errol Flynn and Lili Dimita, John Barrymore and Elaine Barrie, Alice Faye and Tony Martin, and Jon Hall and Frances Langford.

Santa Reveals Wedding

Romance finally caught up with John Montague, Hollywood golfing wizard, whose Christmas card read "John and Esther Montague." The golfer was acquitted in 1937 of a seven-year-old robbery charge. His bride, shown with him, is the wealthy Mrs. Esther Plunkett. Their names had been linked at the time of the trial, but their wedding was kept secret.

508 IS HOLIDAY ACCIDENT TOLL

Ohio Placed Among Leaders With 43 For the Three-Day Period

(By Associated Press)
Violent deaths marred the nation's three-day Christmas celebration with a total cost of more than 500 lives. A national survey placed the figure today at 508.

The toll was approximately the same as that for last year, but in 1937, Christmas fell on Saturday and there was only a two-day observance.

The automobile was the biggest single death factor, accounting for at least 396 fatalities.

Twenty-two persons were killed by fire; 19 died by suicide; 12 in railroad crossing crashes, and six were drowned. Homicides and miscellaneous accidents were responsible for the remainder.

Ohio led the death parade with 43. Other large state tolls included
Texas 40, New York 39, and Illinois 22.

Five states—Nebraska, Nevada,
Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wyoming—and the District of Columbia, reported no deaths.

Tribute Is Paid To Att'y Campbell

Persons from all walks of life paid tribute to Attorney R. W.
Campbell, 61, at the funeral service at the home on South Lincoln ave. Saturday afternoon. Mr. Campbell died Thursday afternoon in his law office on Broadway following a heart attack.

Rev. Raymond D. Walter, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the service. Interment was in Grandview cemetery.

Members of the Columbiana County Bar association attended the service in a body following memorial rites at the Memorial building.

Pallbearers were Robert Huxley of Youngstown and John Carpenter, Walter F. Deming, Joel Sharp, Louis Probst and Ralph Atkinson
of Salem.

Americanization Program Planned

Taking part in a nation-wide observance, Salem Elks will conduct an "Americanization night" program Thursday evening in connection with the regular lodge exercises. The program will be for members only.

Att'y W. Edmund Peters will be the principal speaker, talking on the subject, "What Will Make America Safe for Americans?"

Lunch will be served following the program and regular lodge session.

Attorney Dies

DAYTON, Dec. 27.—Funeral services were being planned today for Francis William Gruen, 59, attorney and former vice president and legal counsel for the Gruen Watch Co., Cincinnati, who died Sunday night. Founder of the First Savings and Banking Co., Dayton, he was the son of Dietrich Gruen, founder of the watch company
bearing his name.

HOPKINS MAPS WORK CAMPAIGN THROUGHOUT U.S.

Considers Plan To Provide Jobs In Private Industry

BUSINESS HEADS
EXPRESS FAVOR

Study Plans to Put Project Into Action
By Spring

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Secretary of Commerce Hopkins, is considering a nationwide drive to put millions of unemployed men and women back to work in private industry.

The man who formerly directed the government's vast work relief program has discussed the possibilities of such a campaign with business leaders here and in New York.

The drive, according to reports in both business and government circles, would be carried on by the commerce department in conjunction with the business advisory council and probably other business organizations.

Reaching into every city and town, it would be aimed at getting employers to cooperate in giving productive private work to as many as possible of the nation's more than 10,000,000 jobless.

See Merit In Plan

Some well-informed persons said
business leaders who had studied the plan professed to see in it considerable merit as a means of attacking the unemployment problem directly.

Methods for conducting the campaign are said to have been developed into a fairly definite program, so that it could start within a few weeks and be well underway by spring. It thus could take advantage of weather-impetus commerce and industry received from the usual spring improvement in business conditions.

If Hopkins declines to put the system into operation, he is expected to rely heavily on the business advisory council. This was organized by his predecessor, Daniel C.
Roper, to give executives in finance, industry and commerce a voice in federal policies relating to business.

Hopkins has disclosed that he would confer soon with W. Averell Harriman, Union Pacific railroad
chairman who is head of the advisory group.

Scheduled for Debate

It was becoming increasingly evident that the work relief system would be one of the first subjects of congressional debate.

WRS.W.D.PAINTER DIES SUDDENLY

Succumbs Sunday In Washington, D. C., Where She Was Spending the Holidays

Mrs. Susie May Painter, 75, wife of William D. Painter, of 167 Tenth st., died suddenly at 4:30 p. m. Sunday following a heart attack at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M.
Benjamin, in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Painter had gone to Washington to spend Christmas with her daughter and family.

Mrs. Painter was born Nov. 20, 1863, at the family residence on the Salem-Canfield rd., the daughter of William C. and Minerva Dunn.
With the exception of 26 years when she lived in Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs.
Painter had spent her entire life in this vicinity. She had returned to Salem seven years ago from Brooklyn.

She was married March 30, 1882.
Mr. and Mrs. Painter celebrated their golden wedding anniversary six years ago. One son, Frank W.
Painter, died in 1925. She was a member of the Christian church.

She is survived by her husband;
one daughter, Mrs. Alice Benjamin of Washington, at whose home she died; one son, Ross D. Painter of Salem; four grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Lydia Campbell of Oskaloosa, Ia.

Rev. C. F. Evans, pastor of the Christian church, will conduct the funeral service at 3 p. m. Wednesday at the Abaugh-Pearce funeral home. Burial will be in Hope cemtery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

A CLOSED INCIDENT

Germany has decided not to go further with the diplomatic incident it created out of a remark by Secretary Ickes. While Americans may agree that the fiery head of the interior department came close to speaking the truth, they are glad the incident has been closed.

They deplore the circumstances behind it. Particularly do they deplore the way the German government is using the German press to attack this government and this country. It's part of the standard technique of dictatorship, to be sure, but a most unpleasant one.

The German people must be encouraged to hate an outside enemy to keep their attention distracted from what is going on inside their country. Without hate, a dictator could not create and maintain the huge and costly army which enables him to keep his own people in a state of fear.

Any overt attempt to create a martial spirit in the United States is subject to the same charge. Officials of this government will do well to confine their public remarks to matters which are less exciting, as Secretary Hull once advised them to do in the case of Mayor LaGuardia, when he seemed anxious to conduct a word battle with the Nazis.

HOPKINS GETS THE JOB

Appointment of Harry L. Hopkins to secretaryship of the department of commerce has two aspects of immediate interest.

The first is that adding the title of secretary of commerce to Mr. Hopkins' name is, as far as his influence inside the Roosevelt administration is concerned, a meaningless formality. He has been sitting in cabinet meetings with the 10 regular members for some time. He had President Roosevelt's ear and confidence as WPA administrator. He will have it now as secretary of commerce.

The second is that the President has chosen to make an appointment he knew would be interpreted by the business community as evidence of determination to keep it on the anxious seat. Businessmen lack confidence in Mr. Hopkins for the simple reason that he is associated in their minds with those new deal policies which have caused them the most worry. It is established in tradition that a president's choice of cabinet members is his own business. While Mr. Hopkins' lack of qualifications will be discussed thoroughly in the senate, his appointment probably will be confirmed. Whether or not President Roosevelt has served his own interests remains to be seen. He has failed to strengthen an already weak cabinet. If Mr. Hopkins should continue to be as much of a political liability as he proved to be last November, it might turn out that his appointment to the secretaryship of commerce hurt Mr. Roosevelt more than it hurt businessmen.

"SOLIDARITY"

Repetition of the word "solidarity" in echoes from the Lima conference seems to have had little effect so far on that sensitive spot called isolationism.

One of two things must be true. Either the traditional feeling against entangling alliances is subsiding, or the popular mind has not yet caught the significance of what the Lima delegates have been talking about.

In view of the fact the topic of hemispheric unity is new in the United States—and new in Lima too—it seems probable the latter is the case. Citizens of this country have not become generally aware of the meaning of the proposal made at Lima.

Argentina's reluctance to subscribe to the idea had the effect, at least, of reminding Americans there were two sides to the question as far as South America was concerned. It is desirable that the subject be further explored when congress convenes.

Necessarily, initiation of delicate moves in foreign policy must be left up to the chief executive. It is his duty to estimate what may and may not be done—what treaties the senate will and will not ratify. Woodrow Wilson made a fateful mistake by trying to carry the United States into European alliances before public opinion was ready for such a step. It is possible that if the import of "solidarity" on the two American continents were understood better, a similar rebuff might be forthcoming.

DON'T GET TECHNICAL

For the man—or woman—whose sweating over household money as 1938 draws to a close, here's a tip:

Some of the money you spent last year wasn't really spent at all. It was invested—not in securities, but in permanent improvements. You don't believe it?

How about the 10 pounds the lady of the house gained? How about the increased weight and height of the children? That double chin represents easily $50 in groceries. Put down the wasteline for $60. Figure in the children's growth at $50 apiece.

So what? So add them up—$210—and that represents the part of the year's grocery bill which can be written down as investment in permanent improvements.

What about clothing? Those shoes, for instance? They're still good. That coat you bought during the January sales a year ago has four more years of wear in it—it had better have at least that. Make an estimate. Write it down under investment.

Any books? Any magazines? New curtains? Don't forget the new can opener; that's a permanent improvement. And the new water heater shouldn't be charged up to expenditure. It represents investment too.

Go through the budget with a magnifying glass. Find the places where it went out of bounds in 1938. You spent more money than you took in. You're in debt. You can't pay off. That sound you hear is the wolf sniffing at the keyhole.

But don't be old-fashioned. Get in tune with the times. Money spent for improvements shouldn't be listed with money that didn't do any good, like the nickels dropped in slot machines. It's investment, not expenditure. You don't have it? Sure you don't. You can't get it back? You're still in debt? Sure you are.

But who are you to get technical? This is the same scheme the government is reported to be considering, to conceal its debt. What's good enough for the government should be good enough for you.

THE STARS SAY:

For Tuesday, December 27

THE LUNAR transits for this date indicate a rapid movement of events, with the forces and faculties under extremely high pressure. This may apply with notable effect to the promotion of new projects in which large issues are at stake. It probably will call for the assistance of employers, superiors or those in places of prestige and power, and these will be found ready and willing. Speculative matters also thrive but let not little peculiarities of the mind prove of detriment.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of great activity and high pressure in important new projects, with the assured cooperation of those in place and power. Seek these if plans are practical and well-developed, but be careful as to peculiar mental slants.

A child born on this day may be enterprising, aggressive and practical, with probably a leaning to sound inventions. This should advance it in standing and favor with superiors.

For Wednesday, December 28

THE SPIRIT of Christmas still abides with surprising force and joyousness, fostered by most beneficent planetary auspices. Social, domestic and romantic activities still hold the interest, largely because of some subtle and fascinating events that spell intrigue, secrecy or undercover attachments. But these carry a menace of malice, gossip or deep hostility that should be guarded against.

Those whose birthday it is may find themselves engulfed in a year in which the sentimental, romantic, social and artistic engage the attention, relegating more sordid activities into the background unless they partake of this more alluring quality. Intrigues and secrecy abound in this connection, calling for discretion and wariness against gossip, slander and bitter attack. Friends, especially women, may be appealed to for support.

A child born on this day may be devoted to the cultural, mystical, romantic and probably the curious and unusual, rather than the practical and sordid. It may have an out-of-the-ordinary gift for fine creative art expression, or devote its life to altruism or social betterment.

Little Czechoslovakia is doing the best she can under the circumstances, apparently content to let retribution follow its course.

With the Nazis and Fascists gaining a foothold in South America, the movement to put new locks on the Panama Canal seems very sensible.

Nobody is 100 per cent anything all the time. Everything depends on self-interest.

Milestones In Medicine
Reviewed By Clendening

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a series of four articles by Dr. Clendening on the advances made in medical science during 1938.

BY LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

AS WE go into a new year we pause to take stock, and in science, as in business, we try to find out how much farther along we are this year than last.

In looking over the year's progress in medical science, I have the advantage of the Year Books, published annually at this time, which gather together all the significant advances in medicine, surgery, obstetrics and the basic sciences. There are 12 of these (including one on dentistry), each of about 800 pages, so it is plain that I cannot hope to recount all the advances in the space at my disposal. Anyway, most of them are so technical and of such minor importance that it would be impossible to make them understandable to a lay audience. So I will recount only a few of the more important triumphs.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

We have been startled in the last six months of this year by the invention of a new microscope. This puts all previous ones in the shade. Our present ones seemed pretty good, but their magnification was only 6,000 times, while this new microscope magnified 20,000 times.

On New Principle

At the California Institute of Technology, in Pasadena, President Milliken showed me last year the enormous lens they were grinding for what is to be the world's largest telescope. I asked him how much better it will be than the largest now existing, and he replied, "It will penetrate 27,000 times further into space than the telescope on the Mount Wilson observatory."

Such an instrument is our microscope. It was designed by three Germans, Doctors von Illies, E. Ruska and H. Ruska. It is constructed on an entirely new principle in microscopy. Our present instruments magnify an object which is illuminated by sunlight or its equivalent. In the ultra-microscope, the object is illuminated by electrons passing over a magnetic field. As they do so they are deflected by a body, such as a cell, and delineate it clearly.

What It Can Do

As to what can be seen with the most exciting thing is that it is able to see the organisms which cause such diseases as the common cold and infantile paralysis. These have been so small as not to be visible with an ordinary microscope at all, and even pass through the porcelain filters. In fact, only bacteriologists working with them did not believe that they really structural entity at all and called them viruses—the filterable uses.

I do not mean to say that the germ of the common cold or the infantile paralysis has yet been seen with this ultra-microscope. But similar bodies have, including the virus of smallpox vaccine, and they feel certain that others will in the near future.

Germs that look like men under an ordinary microscope are seen at gigantic magnification so that their internal structure is visible.

The instrument will probably replace our present microscope for average routine work, but will remain for some time an instrument of research.

Questions and Answers

Miss B.: "Please explain the effect of X-ray on acne. Do you think it is advisable for a stubborn case which does not respond to diet or lotions? Is there any other treatment?"

OUR READERS

SHOPPERS PARKING

Editor, The News:

I have been a regular patron of the Salem stores for the last twenty years. I find no better business men in any of the larger surrounding towns. You can buy most any merchandise one desires as reasonable in Salem as elsewhere, if not for less. The cordial welcome you receive from the store owners, also the courteous and efficient services of their clerks, makes a lasting impression on their customers.

But here is where I find space to offer some criticism. It is in finding parking space convenient to where one wishes to transact his business.

On last Saturday if you did park your car for a half hour, when you were ready to move on you had no chance to go, as your car was in a pocket from the cars that were double parked on Main street.

And if you use the bus service you cannot get on and off the bus as you can in the surrounding towns. It is a case of carrying your purchases from wherever you are to the terminal or to some street where the bus is allowed to stop. Why not give the people who come to Salem to shop the same service as other surrounding towns do?

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gaston Observe 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gaston, whose 60th wedding anniversary was Christmas day, celebrated the occasion at a family dinner Sunday at their home, 551 East Sixth st.

Children and grandchildren of the couple attended, including their sons, Dr. J. C. Gaston of Beaver Falls, Pa., and David of Wadsworth; their daughter, Mrs. Mabel Riddle at home; one granddaughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Riddle of Salem. They have another granddaughter, Mrs. Janet Malacord of Eagle Rock, Cal., and one great grandchild.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Riddle and daughter, Mary Ruth, of Washingtonville and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holmes of Swisshale, Pa.

Neighbors and friends presented the couple a beautiful gift, as did the Men's Bible class of the Presbyterian church of which he is a member. Mr. and Mrs. Gaston received many other gifts and greetings.

Mr. Gaston, 81, was born in Ireland and came to the United States when a boy. Mrs. Gaston, 79, was a native of Scotland and came here sometime before the Civil war.

They have lived in Salem practically all their lives and in their present home for the last 20 years. Both are members of the Presbyterian church and have been for many years. Mr. Gaston, a retired employee of the Mullins Manufacturing Corp., worked for the firm for more than 20 years. He belongs to the Moose lodge and is a charter member of the Beaver Falls lodge which was founded more than 30 years ago.

The presentation is open to the public. A silver offering will be taken.

Miss Marie Colahan will play a xylophone number, "The Bells of St. Mary's" during the intermission period.

Final dress rehearsal for the operetta will be held at 7 tonight in the church.

Roosevelts' Niece "Comes Out" Tonight

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Miss Eleanor Roosevelt of Boston, debutante niece of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, will be presented at a White House ball tonight to a select section of the east's youthful society.

Scions of old families and pretty debs from Boston and New York flocked to the capital for the dance.

The first "White House" debutante, Miss Helen Taft "came out" 28 years ago. Boston guests took a special railroad car for the trip.

Eleanor is the lively 18-year-old daughter of Mrs. Roosevelt's brother, Hall, and is the third Roosevelt debutante to bow at the executive mansion.

Mrs. Roosevelt said that a small dinner party at the White House would precede the ball, with the guests largely cousins.

There will be dancing in the east room until 3 a. m., after the visitors have been received by the first lady and her niece. The president will be there to see that his niece and her friends have a good time.

Irene Hervey, Ray Milland and Olympe Bradna in a scene from "Say It in French". Showing at the State Wednesday Only.

"Say It in French," a comedy romance, comes to the State tomorrow for a one-day showing. Olympe Bradna—as a French bride of an American playboy, who takes a job as maid in his apartment until they can break the news to the family—and Ray Milland—as a handsome society lad, who has to shield his marriage from the world in order to save his father from bankruptcy—play the lead roles.

Troublesome Decision Written by Jacques Deval, the sophisticated Parisian author of "Tovarich," "Say It in French" follows the hilarious escapades of the young marrieds from the poignant moment when they step off the "De France" in New York to learn that Milland must announce his engagement to a madcap heiress immediately or face the bankruptcy of his father's shipping business.

One comic situation follows another as Miss Bradna, in order to avoid separation from her husband, goes to work as a maid for her unsuspecting mother-in-law, while the bewildered Milland allows his engagement to be announced, hoping that something will turn up to save his neck.

Amazing complications arise when the new "maid" tries to prevent her sister-in-law from getting mixed up in an ugly scandal. Milland is discovered by the butler in the Concludes Tonight "The Young in Heart," comedy of a charming and thoroughly dishonest family which includes Roland Young and Billie Burke, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Janet Gaynor, will be seen at the State for the last times tonight. Richard Carlson, Paulette Goddard and Henry Stephenson are also featured in the picture.

"Mr. Wong, Detective," with Boris Karloff in the role of a clever sleuth, will be the Wednesday only attraction at the Grand.

FORD IS WINNER IN ARGENTINE

Capture First Five Places In Grand Prize Contest

DEARBORN, Mich.—Ford V-8s captured the first five places in the 1938 renewal of the Argentine grand prize race, South America's road racing classic.

The winning driver was Ricardo Risatti whose time for the rugged 4,505 mile route was 88 hours 59 minutes, an average of 51.3 miles an hour. Risatti defeated 123 rivals in the race, which was followed with intense interest throughout the Southern continent.

The race, run in 10 stages, led through 14 Argentine provinces and extended from the Atlantic seacoast to the Bolivian border and up into the Andes. The first stages were run through torrential rains, and later laps took the contestants over roads of the most difficult kind. So severe were road and weather conditions that only 22 of the 123 starters were able to finish. Of the 22 finishers, 15 were Ford V-8s.

Mother Weeps as Son Is Convicted in Spy Plot

Karl Drummond, his mother and father

Hearing the guilty verdict against her son in Los Angeles federal court is too much for Mrs. Ida Lee Drummond, mother of Karl Drummond, 21-year-old aircraft plant employee, convicted of stealing blueprints of a revolutionary new naval bombing plane and attempting to sell them to Japanese agents for $2,000.

Sentence was delayed a day by Judge Leon Yankwich. Drummond's crippled father, D. W. Drummond, is at the right. The elder Drummonds drove to Los Angeles from Wichita, Kan., to be at their son's side and lend support at the trial.

Crocker's Popular Band Is Held Over At Metzger

Mel Crocker and his band, which has proven one of the most popular musical organizations at the Hotel Metzger this season, has been held over for this week, the hotel management announced today.

This group will be on hand to supply the tunes on Saturday, New Year's eve. Reservations may be made at the Silver Cocktail room now.

Crocker some years back headed a 12-piece band which acquired considerable fame in New York state. From an obscure group, the band became one of the best liked and busiest organizations in entertainment circles in the Empire State, winning much popularity through its performances at the Peacock room of the Hotel Hammond.

However, as the band's renown was spreading, an unfortunate accident put Crocker out of commission and for many months he was unable to wield a baton. As a result his band was split up. At that time, Marlene Gilbert, his songstress, played some of the largest hotels and better radio stations in the country. Jackie Barnhart, the comedian, went with Austin Wylie; Rogers Washburn, vocalist and pianist, was with Charlie Barnett; and Phil Hughes, the drummer, joined with Art Jarrett, husband of Eleanor Holm.

Crocker, after recovering from the effects of his accident, played with such bands as those of Paul Specht, Emil Velasco, Merle Jacobs and others. Incidentally, Jacobs is now booking Crocker through Music Corporation of America.

Two years ago Mel was able to get several of his original crew back, including the group now with him, and decided to start out again, with a small band, with the expectation of eventually building a larger musical organization. This has been slow, however, because Crocker is exceedingly choicy and will not hire a man unless he meets high standards.

Crocker and his band will leave for southern engagements after the first of the year. It is possible he may add extra pieces to his band at that time.

DR. FRANK WINS OUSTER SOLACE

Will Serve As Master of Ceremonies At Inauguration of Heil

MADISON, Wis.—Dr. Glenn Frank, who two years ago was removed from the presidency of the University of Wisconsin, will be master of ceremonies here Jan. 2 at the inauguration of Julius P. Heil, Republican governor-elect.

At the time of his removal, Frank, now chairman of the Republican party's national program committee, charged that the ouster was dictated by Gov. Philip F. LaFollette, whose bid for an unprecedented fourth term was buried in the G. O. P. landslide last November.

It will be the Republican party's first inauguration under Wisconsin's huge, gray-domed capitol since 1929 when Gov. Walter J. Kohler was inducted into office. Since then LaFollette, founder of the National Progressive party, has served three terms, and Albert G. Schmiedeman, a Democrat, was chief executive from 1933 to 1935.

Republicans won a thumping victory from Progressives in the November election. They carried all five state constitutional offices, captured eight of Wisconsin's 10 congressional seats and elected Alexander Wiley, Chippewa Falls, Wis., attorney, to succeed Sen. F. Ryan Duffy, a New Deal Democrat, in the U. S. senate. Already they are gunning for Sen. Robert M. LaFollette's seat in the young Progressive stands for re-election in 1940.

Heil, ruddy-faced, 62-year-old millionaire Milwaukee industrialist, came to this country from Duesmond, Germany, when a small boy.

Heil's family settled in Waukesha county, where for two years the young German immigrant boy, carried horses, waited on table and did odd jobs. Then he came to Milwaukee, where he worked as a laborer, "news butcher" on railroad trains and as a conductor on street railway lines.

With $700 capital at the age of 24, Heil organized the Heil Rail Joint Welding company which since has grown into the extensive Heil manufacturing company.

MONTREAL—Harry Parkins, 53, confessed robber, complained here that "some crook" had stolen the loot he himself had stolen from a summer home at Laval-sur-le-Lac. After robbing the home, Parkins brought the loot to the city and hid it. When he went to get the goods, they were gone.

MODERN FARMER USES NEW TOOLS

Keeps Pace With Developments In Agriculture

This message is directed generally to the farmer—but not the farmer who insists on carrying on his routine work like his grandfather and his father before him, and so on—the farmer with the Chinese complex who just will not adopt modern methods.

Most successful men welcome new methods, proven methods, if they can incorporate them in their business.

Few farmers would consider harvesting their grain with the tools that their forefathers used. Yet many, far too many, continue to feed their stock and poultry with whatever happens to be at hand.

Modern feeding is a specialized part of the successful farmer's routine. Certainly he can't take the time to develop a formula, nor do many have the time to do that, so that he may add just so many pounds to those hens in a given time at a fixed expense. Nor can the average poultryman know in advance just what he can expect in egg production or development of young birds for market.

There are firms, however, which have spent thousands of dollars developing such formulas, which they know from countless tests, will produce definite results.

The Salona Supply Co. is one of these firms, one of the very largest, one that has gone into every possible field of feeding from the rabbit breeder to the most extensive stock raiser.

They prepare what is known as a concentrate under the trade name of Master Mix. You add this concentrate to the grain in certain proportion and the results are certain if you follow the instructions. There is no guesswork. Every formula has been tested and you can come mighty close to counting your eggs before they are hatched.

The Salona Supply Co. is the local representative of the Master Mix products. They have folders telling you just how to feed to meet any condition for any stock or poultry. And they are free, of course. Let it just good common sense for you to investigate? There is no obligation, certainly. Tell them what stock you feed and they will tell you how to do it most successfully.

HEAT CONTENT SETS COAL COST

Heat, Consequently, What Buyer Should Get, Not Mere Quantity

Coal is measured by the ton, as everyone knows; and coal from different sections sells at different prices; but not many people realize that this difference in price is largely governed by the B. T. U., or British Thermal Unit, content of the coal. The B. T. U. is also a measure and the most important to the user of coal, for it is the yardstick of heat units.

Heat is what you want—and not just so many pounds of those black lumps. Of course there are other things to be considered. For instance, your furnace or boiler must be so arranged that it will burn the coal to advantage; that is—use the B. T. U. units, to express it simply, to the best advantage.

Nor do you want a coal which burns too rapidly. These points are well known to responsible men dealing in coal.

The Citizens Ice & Coal Co., officials have studied the qualities of different coals from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio for years; and they know coal, just like you know the business or work you plow day by day.

A few minutes on the telephone or a personal visit will often result in greater satisfaction to you on your coal investment. This company is anxious to serve you to the best of its ability. It can often suggest a certain coal that will give you better results with your particular heating equipment.

Denies Musica Arms Deal

Susan B. Lucas, 50, who said her business is to obtain capital for new inventions, is pictured as she testified at the New York investigation of the McKesson & Robbins drug firm. She denied knowledge of any $500,000 gun-running scheme engineered by the Musica brothers, but said she had met a "Mr. Simon" who has been mentioned with such a scheme.

NEW BUILDING BEING ERECTED

Company Will Call For Tractor; Deliver After Repairs

It remained for the Salona Supply company to do something entirely new. They are just completing a new garage building fully equipped to do farm tractor work exclusively. It's the only one in Ohio so far as they know.

A truck is kept to go anywhere and get the tractor; with the repair work completed in a modern, heated garage by factory trained mechanics, it will be returned.

All parts for International tractors will be kept in stock but all makes of tractors will be repaired, and parts can be had on very short notice.

In another department pumps of all kinds are repaired. Often the service can be completed at the farm. The company is local representatives of The Deming Co.

FOXX AVERAGE IS LOWEST TO WIN IN YEARS

Boston Slugger Copped Batting Crown With Mark of .349

BY EARL HILLIGAN
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—In a slam-bang season featured by booming home runs and the rattle of extra hits, genial Jimmy Foxx of Boston won his second American league batting championship—with as low an average as any which has captured the coveted crown in the last 30 years.

The blacksmith-armed Red Sox first baseman, official statistics showed today, took the hitting title with a mark of .349 in 149 games, a surprisingly low figure for a year in which his own total of 50 circuit smashes was one of many spectacular hitting performances in the league.

In 1935, Buddy Myer of Washington won the title with a .349 average. Those identical marks are the lowest plate championship figures since the great Ty Cobb won the honor with a .324 in 1908. Foxx took the title in 1933 with .356. The 1937 winner was Charles Gehring of Detroit, with .373. This season he dropped to .366.

Foxx, whose remarkable comeback after a poor 1937 season was won of the season's bright spots, was the player largely responsible for Boston's capturing the league's club-hitting title, with a .299 average.

Behind the champion game these stars: Johnny Geoffrey Heath, Cleveland, .343; Ben Chapman, Boston, .340; Myer of Washington, .336; Cecil Travis of Washington, .335 and Hal Trosky, Cleveland, .344. Foxx's low winning average, however, can't take anything away from the double-X man's brilliant 1938 job. Jimmy, troubled by a sinus infection in 1937, when he hit only .285, roared back to stardom with his big bat. His total bases mark of 358 was tops for the circuit, with his 50 homers putting him second to Hank Greenberg for the circuit-smashing department, Hank coming down in front with 58.

Greenberg, big Detroit first baseman, also took top honors with 144 runs scored, with the laurels for most hits, 201, going to Joe Vojtek of Boston, the only player in the league to make 200 or more safeties during the year.

Joe Cronin, Boston's manager, enjoyed a fine season, with his 21 doubles setting the two base hit pace. In triples, the leader was Heath of Cleveland, with 18. Robert Deerr of Boston made the most sacrifice hits, getting 22, while peppery Frank Crosetti of New York's Yankees stole the greatest number of bases, 27. Bill Werber of Philadelphia was caught stealing the most times, 15.

The season saw the league, as a unit, duplicate its league batting average of .281. The home run total of the loop leaped from 896 in 1937 to a new high of 964. The major league record was broken for the most players making 20 or more homers, with 15 in that list. The old total was 12, made in 1937.

LOUIS LABELED AS TOP BOXER OF PAST YEAR

Armstrong Second Best According To "Ring" Magazine Poll

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Joe Louis, one of all the heavyweights, and hammering Henry Armstrong, the little man with the legs of a child and the body of a middleweight, dominate the rankings of boxers for the year 1938.

Nat Fleischer, editor of "The Ring" magazine, combed a field of almost 2,200, eliminated all but 895 and then ranked the world's fighters for his February issue. When it was over Louis was the boxer of the year and the Hammer was master of the welterweight and lightweight divisions.

Louis achieved top rating in 2:04 minutes of fighting against Max Schmeling last June. In that merciless destruction of his chief challenger and tormenter, the bomber became the greatest heavyweight of his day as far as the Ring editor and his jury of 202 newspapermen, promoters, boxing commissioners and foreign correspondents for the magazine event.

Armstrong accomplished almost as much. The unbelievable little fellow from St. Louis won the featherweight championship late in 1937 and then went on to beat Barney Ross for the welterweight crown, knock the lightweight shapeliest off Lou Ambers' gallant noggin and turn back husky, lethal-hitting crown knock the lightweight chapter title defense.

Louis is way out in front among the heavies. In the second group are Lou Nova, Max Baer, Bob Pastor, Tony Galento, Maxie Rosenbloom, John Henry Lewis, Lewis, the champion's next opponent, is the champion of the light-heavyweight division, although the New York State Athletic commission doesn't recognize him.

The middleweight division gets Fred Apostoli, the San Francisco, as its No. 1 man. He is recognized as champion in New York and California. Solly Krieger, the scarred Brooklynite, is boss in other states.

Fleischer gives Leo Rodak of Chicago and Pete Scalzo, a local master of Mayhem, No. 1 and 2 in the group of featherweights where the championship is vacant—outside of New York. The state's champion is Joey Archibald, the Providence boy, who is ranked third in the second group by Fleischer.

K. O. Morgan, the Stamford, Conn., Italian who fights out of Detroit, is the first bantamweight on Fleischer's list with Sixto Escobar, the Puerto Rican who is the recognized world's champion, listed second. Peter Kane, an Englishman, is the only foreigner to get a No. 1 rating. He is the flyweight champion of the world.

HIGH SCORING ACE SPARK IN TOLEDO DRIVE

Chuckovits Has Tallied 122 Points In Seven Games To Date

COLUMBUS, Dec. 27.—Toledo university, with seven victories and no defeats, paced the pack of Ohio collegiate basketball teams today thanks to the deadly aim of Forward Chuck Chuckovits, leading individual Buckeye scorer.

Chuckovits rang up 13 points last night to aid his team in defeating invading Centenary college of Shreveport, La., 44 to 34, and run his total for the season to 122, four ahead of Forward Frank Baumholtz of Ohio university. Toledo led at halftime, 21 to 17.

In the only other game involving a Buckeye team last night, Ohio State trounced the University of California's cagers at Los Angeles, 46 to 38, to bring their season's record to a brace of victories against a like number of losses.

A crowd of 5,000 saw the Bucks run up a score of 25 to 13 in the first half and then stave off a determined rally by their foes in the second stanza.

Six Ohio teams in addition to Toledo rode into the week between Christmas and New Year with clean slates. Western Reserve of Cleveland, with a perfect record of six wins, was next while Kent State had five, Ashland four, Wooster and Akron two each and Denison one.

Twenty-seven of the 38 Buckeye quintets held percentages of .500 or better, but some of them clash with strong foes during the week.

Fifteen games are scheduled during the remainder of the week for Ohio teams. They are: Today—Ohio State at California; Dec. 28—Bowling Green at Grand Rapids and Wooster at Rider; Dec. 29—Ohio Wesleyan at Penn. Bowling Green at Desales and Ohio State at U. C. L. A.; Dec. 30—Wesleyan at Akron, Bowling Green at Youngstown, Indiana at Western Reserve, Cornell at Baldwin Wallace, Cincinnati at Toledo, Wooster at Duquesne and Ohio State at California; Dec. 31—Wesleyan at Baldwin Wallace and West Virginia at Marietta.

SOUTHERN SPORT FESTIVAL OPENS

Sugar Bowl's Week-Long Program Is Off To Flying Start

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—The Sugar Bowl's week-long festival of sports was off to a flying start today on basis of a hectic round of rowing, sailing, and boxing contests—to say nothing of a horse race.

Boxers of Loyola university of New Orleans and Clemson college, Southern conference champions, fought to a 4-4 draw in a dual meet last night.

Dr. H. S. J. Walker of Mobile, Ala., champion of the annual sailing regatta two years ago, regained the title by beating representatives of seven other gulf coast yacht clubs.

The Orleans Rowing club of New Orleans won a two-length victory over the Rollins college crew of Winter Park, Fla., in a four-oared race at a mile and a quarter. The time was seven minutes and 15.1 seconds.

At Fairgrounds race track, D. A. Wood's 4-year-old Busy K won $2,000 added Christmas handicap finish to go two lengths ahead of Invermark with Michigan Flyer third.

MONTREAL—McGill university co-eds have no use for a "date bureau." A few years ago a bureau was opened with much publicity in the student newspaper, but it died from lack of clients. Suggestions that another one be set up are scorned by the co-eds.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Various Spots

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Johnny Getchell, who pulled the most famous "boner" since Fred Merkle's, finds the thing pays. He got the Sugar Bowl game and finds himself swamped with offers to officiate in basketball.

One midwest paper advertised his appearance with a streamer: "Wrong down Getchell to referee here."

The boys down in the staked plains are plenty heated about a chance crack of Bill Kern's, the Carnegie Tech coach remarked his club had scored two touchdowns against Pitt on passes and might beat Texas Christian the same way in the Sugar Bowl. A fellow who modestly signs himself "the whole state" wonders "if this home ever heard of Don Looney (T. C. U. end). If he hasn't he damn shore will" around this town most of the boys think the Carnegie Tech line will give T. C. U. something less than a frolicsome afternoon.

Bert Bertine, sports editor of the Urbana (Ill.) Evening Courier, is in town with the Illinois basketball team which plays Manhattan in one half of the Madison Square Garden double header tomorrow night.

says the Illini have a right smart outfit and should give Manhattan a drubbing. . . . the University of Florida is on the hunt for a backfield coach. . . . Josh Cody, the head man, feathered a mild attack of criticism recently but some reorganization in his staff is due. . . . Merrie Fines of Dallas, Texas, claims he's picked 1,204 winners out of 1,487 football games in the last three years. . . . Morris chambers right out on the old limb and selects Southern Cal, Tennessee, Texas Christian (risk, tsk, imagine a Texan picking the Christians) and Texas Tech for these Bowl games.

MCKINLEY TOPS COLUMBIA DRIVE

Mickey McGuire League Tossed Into Four-Way Tie

The last of the unbeaten teams in the Mickey McGuire basketball league for sixth grade teams of Salem schools fell from the select list Saturday as Columbia lost to McKinley, 20 to 19 in an overtime game.

Columbia, which was previously undefeated and leading the league with two straight victories, dropped into a four-way tie for first place as a result of its first set-back. Tied with Columbia in the top ranking position are McKinley, Reilly and St. Paul.

The Columbia-McKinley game was close throughout and was extended into an overtime period when the score was knotted at 15-all at the end of the regulation playing time. Lodge paced McKinley to victory with 10 points. Schaeffer tallied eight points to star for the losers.

Raymond Scullion and Dick Miner scored all of the winner's points as Reilly nosed out Fourth Street, 18 to 16. Scullion and Miner each tallied nine markers.

A scheduled game between St. Paul and Prospect was won by St. Paul on a forfeit.

Standings of the teams follow:

	W.	L.	Pct.
McKinley	2	1	.667
Reilly	2	1	.667
St. Paul	2	1	.667
Columbia	2	1	.667
Prospect	1	2	.333
Fourth St.	0	3	.000

RIVAL COACHES IN BOWL GAME APPEAR ALIKE

Many Things In Common Between Wallace Wade and Howard Jones

By ROBERT MYERS

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 27.—Wallace Wade of Duke university and Howard Harding Jones of the University of Southern California have a lot in common in addition to have football teams playing in the Rose Bowl next Monday afternoon.

As they sent their respective teams through another practice session today, a review of their past victories shows that both have a decided affection for golf, both are long on hard work and short on words, both strike their chins when thinking and both are praying for victory when their teams come together.

Jones and Wade each has sent three different teams into the Pasadena classic, but the coming battle marks the first time the two coaches, rated as among the greatest in the nation, ever were competitors.

Jones has an edge in Rose Bowl success. His teams won three bowl games and scored a total of 103 points to opponents' 26.

Wade brought three Alabama teams to Pasadena and left with two victories and one tie, with a total of 51 points to 26.

Wade in 1931 went to Duke where Jones in 1924 had spent one successful season, and in the seven years since has built a record of 61 victories, 14 defeats and 3 ties. His all-time record, dating from 1919, shows 153 games won, 30 lost and eight tied for an average of .836.

Jones took over the Trojan machine in 1925 and has guided it to 109 victories as against 32 defeats and nine ties. His all-time book, starting in 1903 at Syracuse university, lists 181 victories, 59 losses and 16 tie games for an average of .554.

The Duke and the Trojans will make Rose Bowl history next Monday when they play before a throng of more than 80,000 with a gate of approximately $200,000.

All-Stars In Tie

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 27.—The Central Ohio All-stars and St. Petersburg, High school, battled to a scoreless tie here yesterday in the second annual Kumbquat bowl football game. Dick Zimmerman, 210-pound tackle from Columbus North High, recovered four fumbles to star for the Ohioans. St. Petersburg made nine first downs to five for the northerners.

Deaths from whooping-cough in the United States have decreased 83 percent since 1900, according to U. S. Census Bureau reports.

vanced in the last elections toward control of congress.

As it stands, however, the south

generally is called conservative.

Garner and Barkley

In the senate, Vice President

Garner is a Texan and Democratic

Leader Barkley a Kentuckian. The latter has gone down a straight line

for White House policies, and was the President's preference for floor leader. But Garner, advocate of a middle-of-the-road policy, has had his arguments with Mr. Roosevelt, is a potent force, and always must be reckoned with.

In the house, Speaker Bankhead

is from Alabama and Democratic

Leader Rayburn from Texas. They have carried the ball time and again for the administration.

But their background must be remembered. Both worked with

Garner in the house for years.

Rayburn long has been a close friend and companion of the vice president, was his campaign manager in 1932 when Texas supported him for the presidential nomination.

The south being a one-party section and immune to inter-party

election raids, and seniority, counting for what it does in congress,

more than half the standing committees of house and senate are headed by southerners.

HOPKINS MAPS

WORK CAMPAIGN

Considers Plan To Pro-

vide Jobs In Pri-

vate Industry

committee disclosed that a report on complaints of "politics in relief"

was nearing completion. This was a major phase of the committee's investigation into the recent election campaign.

The report, which will be a state-

by-state account, may touch off

senate debate on relief even before the administration asks for extra funds to operate WPA until July 1.

Furthermore, opponents of Hopkins' confirmation believe the report may give them some ammunition.

Senator Tydings (D-Md.), re-

nominated over President Roosevelt's opposition, called today for an overhauling of the present relief program.

Tydings said that for a number of years the problem had been created as a temporary one "largely

by the national government."

"In the future relief—and all government appropriations—must be formulated more on a pay-as-you-go basis," he said.

Senator King (D-Utah) said he would propose that congress junk

the present relief program and substitute a system of outright federal grants to states in need.

He suggested that any state be allowed to decide for itself whether it wished to provide work relief or to make direct grants to individuals.

ASSEMBLY WILL CONVENE FRIDAY

Davy Calls Special Session To Re-enact

School Bills

COLUMBUS, Dec. 27.—The 92nd

general assembly was called formally today by Gov. Martin L.

Davy to meet in special session

Friday and Saturday to re-enact

two school revenue measures and

"for such other purposes" as he may designate.

The other purposes were for senate confirmation of appointments

to memberships on the state unemployment compensation commission and the state industrial commission.

Charles Leasure was expected to be re-appointed to the compensation commission chairmanship for a six-year term. Clarence H. Knisley, state treasurer, was reported reliably to be in line for appointment to succeed Thomas M. Gregory of Cincinnati on the industrial commission.
